Tanks Used To Quell Riots

Casablanca, July 18. French tanks rumbled into the Old Medina here today blasting Moroccans with their cannon and machine guns in an all-out attempt to restore order after another bloody outbreak of violence.

Police reports said seven Moroccans were killed in the latest clashes between demonstrators and government forces but unofficial sources estimated that more than 20 Moroccans died in the face of tank cannon and machinegun fire. The destruction was such that an exact casualty figure was not immediately established.

As the day's rlots wore on, 11 acroplanes brought in fresh police reinforcements.

A Spaniard was stoned to death by the cloters just before the tanks arrived. Spitting death from their 37 mm cannon they broke up mobs of demonstrators who were looting and pillaging Jewish shops in the area. THROW GRENADES The Arabs in turn attacked the tanks with grenades, turning the quarter into the scene of one of the bloodlest battles since the rioting began here. This latest outbreak increased the death toll to 46.

It started around 7 p.m. local time when attacked shops in the Old Medina. Mostly they Jewish-owned.

Big Aid Cut BIPARTISAN DRIVE LAUNCHED IN US

By Paul Scott Rankine Washington, July 17.

Private daily reports to congressional leaders on the progress being made at the Geneva conference are expected to help materially a big bipartisan drive launched this weekend to restore the recent cuts of more than $600,000,000 in President Eisenhower's foreign aid fund.

The House of Representatives cut $628,000,000 from Mr Eisenhower's request for funds for 1955/1956 despite the pleas of administration quarters that this would weaken his hand at Geneva where the free world seeks to deal with Soviet leaders "from a position of strength."

Four British Survivors Still Full Of Punch And Power In Race

Marseilles, July 17.

Suffering from the excruciating pain of saddle sores, Ken Mitchell of Kenton rode alone today for more than 120 miles to courageously finish the tenth stage of the Tour De France cycling marathon, standing on his pedals. He had simply refused to pack in.

To help him keep in the race, a mechanic cut out the middle of his saddle during a brief halt early in the lap.

Wincing with pain, this 24-year-old plasterer gasped: "I hope everything will he better tomorrow."

AMERICA'S GREATEST YEAR IN THE SPRINTS— BUT NO FASTEST HUMAN

By "RECORDER"

Most of America's leading authorities on track and field athletics, including Donald H. Potts, generally recognised as the most authoritative, agree that the past season was the greatest in American athletic history as far as sprinting was concerned.

At first sight there appears to be nobody of the calibre of Ralph Metcalfe, Hal Davis, Jesse Owens, Frank Wykoff, Eddie Tolan or Barney Ewell around. These great sprinters carved their particular niches in sprint history through consistency over a number of seasons and impressive win-lose records where the losses were occasional and explainable.

South Africa Taken To Task For Its All-White Olympic Team Policy London, July 18.

The inevitable is happening. South Africa is being taken to task for not including coloured men in their Olympic Games teams. Two outstanding opponents of the colour bar, Patrick Duncan, a son of a former Governor-General of South Africa, and Dr Trevor Huddleston, an Anglican priest, have written to "The Times" from Johannesburg protesting that non-white men are excluded from Olympic Games teams from the Union. He was a Scot, and owed to Scotland that flair for getting out of ruts that so many of his race possess and use to the advantage of the world in general and the Empire in particular.

Alastair was an accountant, and if that profession seems at first sight to be remoter from romance than some others, it need not be so, as Alastair quickly proved.
